Profile

Iain had over 15 years experience as a solicitor and partner with leading legal firms before calling to the Bar in 2022.

He acted mainly for insurers and has a wealth of experience across the spectrum of personal injury work, including cases involving indemnity issues. He has acted for pursuers and defenders in property damage cases. He appeared in proofs and fatal accident inquiries in the Sheriff Courts.

For much of his time as a solicitor Iain handled cases involving serious and complex injury, including brain injuries, spinal injuries, chronic pain and industrial disease.
