Compass Chambers

Ross Crawford

Year called:	2024
Email:	ross.crawford@compasschambers.com
Qualifications:	BA(dst), LL.B(hons), LL.M(dst), Dip.LP, NP, Cert.FMS, WS

Profile

Ross joined Compass Chambers as a Lord Hope Scholar. He is a Writer to His Majesty's Signet and tutors Civil Litigation at the University of Glasgow.

Ross has been instructed as Counsel to the Eljamel and NHS Tayside Inquiry, and has been instructed to represent the Care Inspectorate in the Scottish Child Abuse Inquiry.

His practice spans catastrophic injury, clinical negligence, and fatal accident inquiries. Ross brings a forensic and thorough approach to complex litigation, combined with the sensitivity that cases of this nature demand.

"Ross is a pleasure to work with. He is exceptionally thorough in his preparation, approachable, and consistently able to explain complex issues clearly to both clients and experts. His pragmatic advice, attention to detail, and strong advocacy help achieve excellent outcomes."

In his personal time, Ross enjoys flying — he was one of the UK's youngest pilots to fly a private aircraft solo at the age of 16.

Testimonials from Instructing Solicitors

"A prodigious legal talent. He has a fine analytical mind."
"His written work is excellent, he is a skilled negotiator and achieves great outcomes in challenging cases."
"Impressive in court, well-prepared, persuasive and highly effective. His ability to think quickly on his feet is invaluable."
"Exceptionally approachable and puts clients at ease from the outset."